

> Settlements

A motorcyclist whose right leg was amputated following a collision with a pickup truck settled his case for $3.75 million.

David Rodriguez, then 46, was driving on his motorcycle on Route 30 in New Lenox, when he was struck by a pickup truck who had pulled out from a stop sign.

The pickup driver said his view of Rodriguez was obstructed by an SUV driving in front of Rodriguez.

Rodriguez suffered tissue damage and fractures to his right leg so severe that his leg was amputated below the knee. He also suffered hip and pelvis fractures.

Rodriguez was represented by Philip Harnett Corboy Jr. and Thomas F. Boleky of Corboy & Demetrio. The defendants were represented by Laura Maul of Chilton Yambert Porter & Young; William P. McElligott of Leahy, Eisenberg & Fraenkel; Margaret E. Daniele and Judith Anne Gleason of Gleason & Schroeder; and Douglas J. Esp of Esp, Kreuzer, Cores & McLaughlin (Wheaton).