

Attorney Dan Kirschner Featured Speaker at Illinois Trial Lawyers Association Seminar

March 2009

Daniel S. Kirschner, a Chicago personal injury trial attorney at the law firm of Corboy & Demetrio, will be a featured speaker at the "Insurance, Liens and Settlements Seminar" sponsored by the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association, on Saturday, March 28, 2009 at the Oak Brook Hills Marriott Resort, in Oak Brook, Illinois. During the program, Kirschner will discuss arbitration and mediation strategies for cases involving uninsured and underinsured insurance coverage. The Seminar, produced for attorneys, will also provide practical techniques and effective strategies for handling liens and settlements.

Personal Injury Trial Lawyer

An experienced and accomplished trial lawyer, Kirschner represents plaintiffs in catastrophic personal injury and wrongful death litigation. His practice is concentrated in matters involving aviation disasters, trucking and highway collisions, railroad crossings and derailments, construction negligence, premises liability, product liability, and medical malpractice.

Professional Associations

Kirschner is an active member of many bar associations. He is a past Co-Chair of the Young Lawyers Committee of the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association and served as an investigator for the Chicago Bar Association's Judicial Evaluation Committee. He has organized, moderated, and lectured at numerous continuing legal education seminars for practicing attorneys and is regularly called upon to judge moot court and trial advocacy competitions. In 1999, the Illinois Supreme Court appointed him to a three-year term as a Commissioner on the Character and Fitness Committee of the Illinois Board of Admissions to the Bar and in 2002, the Court appointed him to serve on the Illinois Supreme Court Rules Committee.
