

Attorney Daniel Kotin Elected to The Chicago Bar Association Board of Managers

July 2009

Daniel Kotin, a Chicago personal injury lawyer and partner at the law firm of Corboy & Demetrio, was elected to the Board of Managers of The Chicago Bar Association and was recently installed at the Association's annual meeting. He will serve a two year term.

Chicago Bar Association

The Chicago Bar Association (CBA) is the largest metropolitan bar association in the United States. It is a voluntary association of lawyers dedicated to improving the administration of justice, increasing the usefulness of the legal profession, promoting the public good, and establishing and maintaining the honor and dignity of the legal profession. The 23-member Board of Managers oversees the affairs of the Association.

Corboy & Demetrio Legacy of Leadership

Corboy & Demetrio has a strong legacy of leadership at the CBA. Philip Corboy served as President from 1972 to 1973 and twenty years later, Tom Demetrio assumed the presidency. In 2003, Michael Demetrio, Tom's brother became President - the first time in the CBA's 103-year history that two brothers held the office. Corboy & Demetrio partner René Torrado, Jr., also served as CBA President, after having served as its general counsel from 1988 through 1995.

Upon his election, Dan said,

I'm honored to be elected to the Board of Managers and to serve with such a fine group of attorneys. Given the history of our firm with the Association, I'm also proud to be carrying on the tradition of service started so many years ago. I look forward to working with all the members to keep the CBA one of the best bar associations in the country.

Attorneys

- Daniel M. Kotin

Related Practices

- Aviation Litigation
- Commercial Litigation
- Premises Liability
- Product Liability
- Railroad Negligence & FELA
- Vehicular Negligence