

Attorney Kirschner Featured Speaker at Illinois Trial Lawyers Association Seminar

October 2009

Daniel Kirschner, a Chicago personal injury lawyer at the law firm of Corboy & Demetrio, was a featured speaker at the "Update & Review Seminar" sponsored by the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association, on Monday, October 12, 2009 at the Westin Michigan Avenue hotel in Chicago, Illinois. During the program, Kirschner discussed practical techniques and effective strategies for handling liens and settlements. The Seminar, produced for attorneys, also included presentations on Medicare, mass torts, construction negligence, product liability, jury selection and other topics of interest to trial attorneys.

Experienced and Successful Chicago Personal Injury Lawyer

An experienced and accomplished personal injury lawyer, Kirschner represents plaintiffs in catastrophic personal injury and wrongful death litigation. His practice is concentrated in matters involving aviation disasters, trucking and highway collisions, railroad crossings and derailments, construction negligence, premises liability, product liability, and medical malpractice.

Active Member of Legal Associations and Organizations

Dan is an active member of many bar associations. He is a past Co-Chair of the Young Lawyers Committee of the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association and served as an investigator for the Chicago Bar Association's Judicial Evaluation Committee. He has organized, moderated, and lectured at numerous continuing legal education seminars for practicing attorneys and is regularly called upon to judge moot court and trial advocacy competitions. In 1999, the Illinois Supreme Court appointed him to a three-year term as a Commissioner on the Character and Fitness Committee of the Illinois Board of Admissions to the Bar and in 2002, the Court appointed him to serve on the Illinois Supreme Court Rules Committee.
