

Attorney Matthew Jenkins Hosts Center for Disability & Elder Law Fundraiser

November 2009

Attorney Matthew Jenkins, president of the Young Professionals Board for The Center for Disability & Elder Law (CDEL), a nonprofit organization that provides free legal services to low-income elderly and disabled individuals in Cook County, hosted a fundraiser for the Center on November 10, 2009, at the Bull & Bear in Chicago. In addition to buying a ticket that provided free drinks and appetizers, supporters were also able to purchase raffle tickets for Blackhawks and Bulls games. It was a tremendous success. Approximately $5,500.00 was raised, and a good time was had by all who attended.
