

Attorney Bob Bingle Featured Speaker at Legal Seminar

May 2010

Bob Bingle, managing partner at the law firm of Corboy & Demetrio, was a featured speaker at the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association's seminar "Ethics & Professionalism in the PI Practice," held at the Oak Brook Hills Marriott, on May 7, 2010. During the program, Bob presented a talk entitled, "Zealous Advocacy - What Does It Mean?" The Seminar, produced for attorneys, provided 4.5 hours of continuing legal education credit.

Attorney Bingle

Bob has been a Chicago personal injury lawyer at Corboy & Demetrio for over 27 years and managing partner for 19 years. While at the firm, he has been involved in every type of personal injury and wrongful death case and has obtained numerous multi-million dollar verdicts and settlement for his clients.

As a result of Bob's extensive legal experience, he has acquired leadership positions on mass tort litigation arising from railroad collisions, explosions, fires and other disasters. He was lead plaintiffs' counsel for the litigation stemming from the collision of a train and school bus in Fox River Grove, Illinois, which settled in excess of $25 million and was one of the lead attorneys in a $10 million settlement stemming from a collision at a Union Pacific rail yard that resulted in the deaths of the three men. He was also the lead trial attorney and directed the mass litigation from the Quantum Chemical explosion which settled for more than $20 million.

In addition to his trial work, Bob is very active in bar association work, has been a faculty member at the National Institute for Trial Advocacy and is a member of the Loyola University Chicago School of Law Alumni Board. He lectures extensively throughout the United States and has published chapters and articles in legal books, periodicals and newspapers. He is frequently called upon by the media to comment on legal issues involving civil litigation and has
