

Record-Setting $22 Million Verdict for Injuries from Vehicle Collision

A young woman was rendered a quadriplegic when the car she was driving was hit from behind by a semi-trailer truck in north suburban Chicago on Thanksgiving Day. Tom Demetrio, along with his brother, Michael Demetrio, tried the case to a $22 million verdict. It is the largest compensatory verdict for an individual ever upheld by the Illinois Supreme Court.

Attorneys

- Michael K. Demetrio
- Thomas A. Demetrio